

Davidson Honors College

Students applying for admission to the Davidson Honors College should show clear evidence of academic talent and motivation. Generally, a minimum high school GPA of 3.5 is expected, as well as an ACT composite score of 27 or SAT combined score of 1800 or higher. These criteria are not absolute, and highly motivated students are encouraged to apply.

Applications are welcomed from older or non-traditional students, international students and students from varied racial and ethnic backgrounds. College transfer students with a record of strong academic performance (GPA of 3.5 or higher) are likewise welcome to apply.

Davidson Honors College Application procedures

Mail all of the following materials in a single envelope to the Davidson Honors College postmarked by December 31, 2009.

- 1. The Davidson Honors College application form. You may also download the Davidson Honors College application from www.umt.edu/dhc. You can apply to the Davidson Honors College online at <http://admissions.umt.edu/dhc.html>.
- 2. One letter of recommendation from a teacher speaking to your academic and personal qualities. This letter should be obtained from referee in a sealed envelope that must be included in your application or mailed to the Davidson Honors College. Only one letter will be considered during the review of your application. Current UM students and transfer students must submit a letter of recommendation from a college professor.
- 3. List all honors, activities, accomplishments and community service on a separate sheet of paper.
- 4. An essay of 2-3 pages (double spaced) on one of the following topics:
 - Topic 1: Describe an event in your life, a person, a book, an experience (choose one) that has had a profound effect on you and influenced change in you, your attitudes, your goals OR
 - Topic 2: Identify and describe a characteristic of leadership that you find to be particularly interesting, troubling, controversial or otherwise worthy of further study and discuss why this characteristic strikes you this way.
- 5. An unofficial transcript of your high school record through the junior year, including your cumulative GPA, rank in class and ACT or SAT results. Current UM students and transfer students should also attach an unofficial transcript of your completed college work. Transcripts should be included in your application pack or mailed to the Davidson Honors College. The transcript does not need to be official, but it is subject to verification.
- 6. Submit The University of Montana Application for Undergraduate Admission, available from <http://admissions.umt.edu>. Davidson Honors College applications will be considered only from those who have applied for admission to a four-year undergraduate program at The University of Montana.

Presidential Leadership Scholarship

The Presidential Leadership Scholarships are The University of Montana's premier academic scholarships, recognizing outstanding talent, academic performance and contribution to the community. These awards are renewable for four years, subject to satisfactory performance by the student.

Each scholarship includes a full or partial tuition waiver, the value of which varies according to the amount of tuition each year. Approximately 24 awards will be made in the competition. Their approximate value each year, including the tuition waivers, will be:

Gold Level	$7,500 stipend plus a tuition waiver valued at approximately $3,900
Silver Level	$5,000 stipend plus a tuition waiver valued at approximately $3,900

Eligibility

Eligible candidates for the Presidential Leadership Scholarship must be recent high school graduates who have not previously enrolled as a regular college or university student. Finalists in the autumn 2009 class of Presidential Leadership Scholars posted an average of 3.93 GPA, SAT combined score of 2120 or ACT composite score of 32.

All applications received by December 31, 2009, will be considered for the Presidential Leadership Scholarship.

Interviews

The Presidential Leadership Scholarship committee will review files in mid-January 2010 and choose finalists by mid-February. All finalists must interview with members of the selection committee either in person or by phone.

Deadline: Applications to the Davidson Honors College postmarked by December 31, 2009, will be considered for the Presidential Leadership Scholarship. Applications received after December 31, 2009, will be considered for admission to the Davidson Honors College on a space-available basis.
